Folks, I created a Zoom bible study event in March for folks who were yearning for connection. I placed it on Thursdays at 5 pm so that people working a job could make it.

That group often has 4 - 7 people as members.

I am making the group hybrid this week - for folks who would love a bible study but the Zoom thing is just not working for them. So, if you would like to try the in person option here's how -

We will meet in the library at 4:55 on Thursday, with the zoom going live at 5.

In person, we will sit 6 feet apart, and I will have a screen with the Zoom participants up for us all to see. (I hope). My job will partly be to shift the screen around so folks can see you all, too. Masks are required. When we finish, I will ask us each to sanitize the chair we used for the next use of that space.

We have been going 45 - 55 minutes depending on the conversation!

We are studying Genesis - the readings I am using in worship this summer.

Can you let me know if you are coming so I can make a plan? Jack Ruscoe is coming if his train gets in early enough.

IMPORTANT - Don't come unless you feel comfortable doing this. I know folks who just aren't equipped for the Zoom study who are missing a chance to study the bible. So, we'll try this a couple times and see if it works, ok?

Bless you, Pastor Patricia+
